Five Steamers Loaded With Supplies For Allies Destroyed In American Ports

New York, Feb. 17—Four big freighters loading in the East river at Brooklyn were destroyed by explosions on board yesterday, forty lighters which were engaged in loading the vessels were destroyed in the explosions. The steamships destroyed were the Pacific, Belligic, Bolton and the Castle. The steamers were loading oil and cotton consigned to the Allies. The explosions were fearful, bits of wreckage blown a half mile away, the buildings along the water front were rocked on their foundations and people walking along the streets were knocked to the ground by the force of the explosion. There are no windows left in any of the buildings and blazing oil was scattered broadcast. The fire boats were on the scene in a few minutes as was also the fire department of the city which saved many buildings and boats which were set on fire by the blazing oil. Several seamen are missing.

The damage is estimated to be over six million dollars.

Have Narrow Escape When Boat Sinks

Sam Knutson, wife and three children experienced a very close call from drowning last Tuesday morning when their boat the Kathleen K., on which they were living filled and sank while anchored near the head of the bay.

They were sleeping on the boat and awoke about 8 A. M. to find the water about a foot deep on the cabin floor and by the time they could dress and leave the boat it was a foot deep on the deck. A bad leak was the cause and the boat was dragged to shore and repaired.

One of the most enjoyable events of the season was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Richmond on Valentine night where a party was given in honor of Miss Elsie Sylvester who is stopping with them for the winter. The house was decorated with hearts and Jack-O-Lanterns throughout. Games of all kinds including cards served the merry-makers as a source of amusement. Those present were, Misses Ruth Hart, Florence Billions, Margaret Grant, Kathleen Loftus, Helen Hofstad, Ruth Sylvester, Ruth Lindman, Viola Walsh, Liberty Worden, Irene Coulter, Amanda Horgheim, Edith Horgheim, Edna Sinclair, Mrs. Feakes, Marion Myers, Elrie Carlson, Andrew Engstrom, Jerry Shurick, Louis Wigg, Clarence Haskins, William Lewis, Buster Grant, Buster Coulter, Ned Lemeaux, Mr. Feakes, and Miss Ann Sylvester who, dressed as a Gypsy told fortunes from a booth. Refreshments consisting of sandwiches, salad, chocolate, ice cream and cake, were served and not until one A.M. did anyone think of such a thing as home so that is a fair sign that every one had a dandy time.

ROOSEVELT STARTED THE WAR

The Kaiser and the Crown Prince were having a little chat in the Kaiser's library at Potsdam. The Crown Prince said: "Father who started the war?" "I know" the father said playfully, "but I won't tell." "Did cousin George start it?" "No!" said papa. "Did cousin Nicolas?" "No!" said the old man. "Did Franz Josef?" "No!" said the father. "Well who did start it?"

"I'll tell you soon do you remember when Teddy Roosevelt came here from Central Africa? well I showed him my magnificent army, my great and glorious navy, all our Subs and Zepps and gas bombs, and Teddy put his hand on my shoulder and said: 'Bill, old socks, you can lick the world, and me like a darn fool believed him.'"

Why this man bought a
Remington Junior
Typewriter

"I have been investigating several of the recent makes of machines, seeking for one of simple construction for ordinary manuscript and letter writing. I was nearly ready to buy a machine of another make when I just happened to see for the first time the Remington Junior, and found it to be the very thing I wanted."

The man who wrote this is the postmaster of a small Southern town. He is only one of thousands who have recently bought a Remington Junior. But his reasons apply to everybody—they apply to YOU.

The Remington Junior is our latest product and the latest idea in typewriting.

It is strictly a high-grade machine.

It has the Remington Name, the Remington Guarantee, the Remington Quality—everything Remington except weight and bulk.

A "Simplified Remington" describes it exactly.

And its price is $50.00

Remington Junior Typewriters will be sent "on examination," without obligation to purchase.

Easy payment terms can be arranged if desired.
